General

B.26.003 (1) Subject to subsection (2), no person shall sell a food that has been irradiated.

(2) A food that is set out in column 1 of the table to this Division that has been irradiated may be sold if both of the following requirements are met:

(a) the ionizing radiation is of a type and from a source set out in column 2 for the purpose of irradiation set out in column 3; and

(b) the ionizing radiation that is absorbed by the food is either within the range set out in columns 4 and 5 or, if there is no minimum absorbed dose set out in column 4, is not more than the maximum absorbed dose set out in column 5.

Application

B.26.002 Le présent titre ne s'applique pas aux aliments exposés à un rayonnement ionisant émis par un instrument de mesure utilisé pour déterminer le poids, évaluer la quantité des solides en vrac ou mesurer la teneur en solides d'un liquide, ou à d'autres fins d'inspection.

DORS/89-175, art. 3.

Dispositions générales

B.26.003 (1) Sous réserve du paragraphe (2), il est interdit de vendre un aliment qui a été irradié.

(2) Il est permis de vendre un aliment qui a été irradié et qui est visé à la colonne 1 du tableau du présent titre si les exigences ci-après sont remplies :

a) le rayonnement ionisant est d'un type et d'une source mentionnés à la colonne 2 et a été fait pour atteindre le but de l'irradiation visé à la colonne 3;

b) le rayonnement ionisant absorbé par l'aliment est conforme aux doses prévues aux colonnes 4 et 5 ou, dans le cas où la colonne 4 ne prévoit aucune dose absorbée minimale, n'excède pas la dose absorbée maximale prévue à la colonne 5.

DORS/89-175, art. 3; DORS/2017-16, art. 4.

Records

B.26.004 (1) A manufacturer who sells a food that has been irradiated shall keep on their premises, for at least two years after the date of the irradiation, a record that contains all of the following information:

(a) the name of the food that was irradiated and the quantity and lot numbers of the food;

(b) the purpose of the irradiation;

commercially sterile means the condition obtained in a food that has been processed by the application of heat, alone or in combination with other treatments, to render the food free from viable forms of microorganisms, including spores, capable of growing in the food at temperatures at which the food is designed normally to be held during distribution and storage; (stérilité commerciale)

hermetically sealed container means a container designed and intended to be secure against the entry of microorganisms, including spores; (récipient hermétiquement fermé)

low-acid food means a food, other than an alcoholic beverage, where any component of the food has a pH greater than 4.6 and a water activity greater than 0.85; (aliment peu acide)

refrigeration means exposure to a temperature of 4°C or less but does not mean frozen; (réfrigéré)

shipping container means a receptacle, package or wrapper in which containers of food are placed for transportation; (contenant d'expédition)

water activity means the ratio of the water vapour pressure of a food to the vapour pressure of pure water, at the same temperature and pressure. (activité de l'eau)

SOR/89-309, s. 1.

B.27.002 (1) No person shall sell a low-acid food packaged in a hermetically sealed container unless the food is commercially sterile.

Where drugs having similar physiological actions occur in combination, the dosage of each shall be proportionately reduced.

Accurate dosagesmay be expressed in either metric units or imperial units. If the dosage is expressed in both systems, then an approximation may be used for one expression, but such approximation must precede or follow the accurate statement by which the product will be judged and must be in brackets.

SOR/78-422, s. 1; SOR/80-544, s. 3; SOR/84-145, s. 1; SOR/85-715, s. 3; SOR/85-966, s. 2; SOR/88-94, s. 1; SOR/89-229, s. 2; SOR/89-548, s. 1.

Quand des drogues douées de propriétés physiologiques semblables sont en mélange, la dose de chacune doit être réduite proportionnellement.

Les doses exactes peuvent être exprimées en unités métriques ou en unités impériales. Si la dose est exprimée en unités des deux systèmes, l'une des données peut n'être qu'approximative, mais cette valeur approximative doit précéder ou suivre la donnée exacte d'après laquelle le produit sera jugé, et elle doit être indiquée entre parenthèses.

b) présentée en suppositoires, peuvent être augmentées à 33 1/3 pour cent en excédent de la dose orale.

Bearing in mind the possibility that such reactions may occur, Aminopyrine or Dipyrone should be used only when other less potentially dangerous agents are ineffective.

PRECAUTIONS: It is essential that frequent white blood cell counts and differential counts be made during treatment with these drugs. However, it is emphasized that agranulocytosis may occur suddenly without prior warning. The drug should be discontinued at the first evidence of any alteration of the blood count or sign of agranulocytosis, and the patient should be instructed to discontinue use of the drug at the first indication of sore throat or sign of other infection in the mouth or throat (pain, swelling, tenderness, ulceration)."

« MISE EN GARDE : Il est établi qu'une agranulocytose grave et même fatale peut survenir après l'administration de l'aminopyrine ou de la dipyrone. Une agranulocytose fatale est apparue après qu'on eut employé ces drogues pour une thérapie de courte durée, une thérapie intermittente ou une thérapie prolongée. Par conséquent, l'emploi de ces drogues devrait être d'une durée aussi brève que possible. Étant donné la possibilité de telles réactions, l'aminopyrine et la dipyrone ne devraient s'employer que lorsque des agents moins virtuellement dangereux sont inefficaces.

PRÉCAUTIONS : Il est essentiel que se fassent fréquemment des numérations de leucocytes avec formule leucocytaire durant tout traitement avec ces drogues. Toutefois, il faut remarquer que l'agranulocytose peut se produire d'une façon subite sans aucun signe avant coureur. L'emploi de la drogue devrait être interrompu au premier signe d'un changement de la formule sanguine ou d'un symptôme d'agranulocytose, et il faudrait avertir le malade d'interrompre l'emploi de la drogue au premier signe du mal de gorge ou d'une autre infection de la bouche ou de la gorge (douleur, enflure, hyperesthésie, ulcération). »

« MISE EN GARDE : Il existe un lien probable entre l'emploi de comprimés enrobés contenant des sels de potassium avec ou sans diurétiques de thiazide et l'incidence de l'ulcération grave de l'intestin grêle. Ces préparations ne sont à utiliser que s'il n'est pas possible de suppléer convenablement au régime alimentaire; il faut en cesser l'emploi dès qu'apparaissent des douleurs abdominales, une distension abdominale, des nausées, des vomissements ou des hémorragies gastrointestinales. »

a) par gramme, dans le cas des solides ou des liquides visqueux;

(b) per millilitre in the case of other liquids; and

(c) per individual dosage or dispensing form in the case of antibiotic preparations put up in individual dosage or dispensing form.

(i) bone marrow depression has been associated with the use of chloramphenicol, and

(ii) the enclosed warnings and precautions should be read carefully; and

(b) the outer label or the package insert carries the following:

(i) a warning statement to the effect that chloramphenicol should not be used in the treatment or prophylaxis of minor infections or where it is not indicated, as in cold, influenza, or infections of the upper respiratory tract; that there are two types of bone marrow depression associated with the use of chloramphenicol; that some degree of depression of the bone marrow is commonly seen during therapy, is dose-related and is potentially reversible; that blood studies may detect early changes and; that the other type of bone marrow depression, a sudden, delayed and usually fatal bone marrow hypoplasia that may occur without warning, is very rare, and

(ii) a statement of precautions to be taken to the effect that it is essential that appropriate blood studies be made during treatment with chloramphenicol and that while blood studies may detect early peripheral blood changes, such studies cannot be relied on to detect the rare and generally irreversible bone marrow depression prior to development of aplastic anemia.

(i) un avertissement pour faire savoir que le chloramphénicol ne devrait pas être employé dans le traitement ou la prévention des infections bénignes ou lorsqu'il n'est pas indiqué, comme pour les rhumes, la grippe, ou les infections des voies respiratoires supérieures; que deux types de diminution de l'activité de la moëlle osseuse sont associés à l'emploi de chloramphénicol; qu'une certaine diminution de l'activité de la moëlle osseuse est communément constatée durant le traitement, et qu'elle est fonction de la dose et potentiellement réversible; que des analyses de sang permettent de déceler les changements précoces; que l'autre forme de diminution de l'activité de la moëlle osseuse est très rare, se traduisant par une hypoplasie de la moëlle osseuse brutale, tardive et généralement fatale qui peut survenir sans avertissement, et sanguines périphériques précoces, il ne faut pas s'y fier pour déceler la forme rare et généralement irréversible de diminution de l'activité de la moëlle osseuse avant l'apparition d'une anémie aplastique.

(ii) une déclaration des précautions à prendre précisant qu'il est indispensable de faire des analyses de sang appropriées au cours du traitement par le chloramphénicol et que, bien que les analyses de sang permettent de déceler les modifications
